About Jack R. Janousek

When Jack was a small boy, he was always extremely frightened during a rainstorm whenever it would lightning. That fright turned into a major interest in meteorology during his lifetime. When he was interested in something he would focus on that completely, until he accomplished his goal of understanding a subject. That same focus helped him become a Medical Laboratory Technician, an Intensive Care RN and finally accepted into Villanova University to become a Nurse Anesthetist. He was a very kind and generous person and above all, besides dedication, he knew how much financial help it takes to achieve one's goals. This scholarship is in honor of our beloved son and brother, Jack R. Janousek.
