

Smoky Hills announces scholarship recipients

Trustees of the Smoky Hills Charitable Foundation recently announced scholarship awards from three funds within the foundation:

- Kandice Bowie from Ellsworth High School received a $500 scholarship from the Jack R. Janousek Memorial Scholarship Fund to attend Kansas State University.

- Brooke Major from Wilson High School was awarded a $700 scholarship from the Geraldine L. Anschutz Memorial Scholarship Fund to attend Fort Hays State University.

- Five students received $500 from the Eleanor Hunter Scholarship Fund to attend Kansas State University: Curtis Dolezal, Sophia Ford, Aubrey Ptacek, Andrea Rader and Kyle Steinle.

Also from the Eleanor Hunter Scholarship Fund: Mitch Wolf and Kylie Stoppel were each awarded $500 to attend Cloud County community College; Aaron Watts, Jeremy Pasek and Jacob Koch each received $500 to attend Dodge City Community College; Ethan Borell received $500 to attend ITT Technical Institute of Kansas City, Mo.; Garry Miller and Joshua Helvey each received $250 to attend Salina Area Technical School.

The Smoky Hills Charitable Foundation is a non-profit organization, which each year distributes grants to Ellsworth County groups and organizations for project to benefit Ellsworth County or one of its five communities. The foundation also has funds directed at scholarships for county students.

August 4, 2008