

High school scholarships are available at Ellsworth, Wilson

Student scholarships are available through three different funds in the Smoky Hills Charitable Foundation. They are:

- The Geraldine L. Anschutz Memorial Trust Scholarship for high school seniors at Wilson High School.
- Jack R. Janousek Memorial Scholarship for graduates of Ellsworth High School who will major or are majoring in meteorology or the medical field.
- Eleanor Hunter Scholarship for graduates of Wilson High School with plans to attend any accredited post-secondary school.

Applications are available from counselors at Ellsworth and Wilson high schools or on the foundation's website at www.smokyhillscf.org. Information: Judy Toman, board chairwoman, (785) 472-3627.
